Q1. Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions:- Charlie Chaplin was an English comic actor, film director and composer. He was best known for his work during the silent-film era. He became one of the most famous film stars in the world before the end of World War I. Chaplin used mime, slapstick and other visual comedy techniques. He continued his career well into the era of the talking films. However, the number of his films decreased from the end of the 1920s. The Great Dictator was Chaplin's first talking film. His most famous roll was that of The Tramp, when he first played in Kid Auto Races at Venice in 1914. Most of his films were written and directed by Chaplin himself.

Chaplin was one of the most creative and influential personalities of the silent-film era. He was influenced by the French comedian Max Linder. Chaplin dedicated one of his films to Max Linder. He was active in films for more than 75 years, until his death at the age of 88. In 1999, the American Film Institute ranked Chaplin the 10th greatest male screen legend of all time. The famous playwright George Bernard Shaw called Chaplin 'the only genius to come out of the movie industry.'
